The Wiessner Foundation for Children, Inc.

Providing for the welfare of children since 1905

HISTORY

1905 The John Frederick Wiessner Orphan Asylum for Children was established in the area known as Highlandtown, in Baltimore City, Maryland by John Frederick Wiessner, a Baltimore brewer and ice house magnate.

1939 The orphanage moved to 4915 Holder Avenue in Hamilton, where it continued in operation for the next 33 years.

1947 The name was changed to The John Frederick Wiessner Home for Children.

1984 To better meet the ever changing needs of children, The John F. Wiessner Foundation, Inc. was formed.

1996 To better describe our purpose, the name was changed to The Wiessner Foundation for Children, Inc.

MISSION

To provide funding to qualified, needy organizations within the State of Maryland for the benefit of children.

GRANT APPLICATION

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS & GUIDELINES

As we continue to focus on the needs of children, the foundation evaluates applications for grant requests from organizations that provide for the care of children age 18 and under. We also consider organizations dedicated to the research and/or treatment of causes of emotional and physical afflictions of children.

To be considered for funding, organizations need to meet the following requirements:

- The organization must be non-profit and tax-exempt under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or a public school.
- Funds must be used for children in the State of Maryland.
- The organization must be in need of funding sources.
- The organization must not impose restrictions based on race, religion, creed, color, physical handicap, or gender.
